Our research is editorially independent, but we can earn a commission on purchases made through our links. Texas families are lucky to have a number of large mini golf courses scattered across the state. Some of the mini golf venues below are not just putt putt golf venues, but also entire entertainment complexes that are home to fun activities such as laser marker and arcade games. In this list there are both courses for internal and external courses, as well as courses to fit in any kind of budget. Test put skills at these 10 best mini golf courses in Texas. Mini golf at the Embassy of San Antonio, Miniatur Golf in San Antonio, this tropical-themed mini golf course is one of the best courses in Lone Star State. The course has 18 holes with unique obstacles such as animal sculptures and water features. After a fun game of mini golf, hit a great arcade, also opened at the Mini-Golf Embassy. With excellent group discount rates, the embassy is a hot spot for a birthday party for San Antonio families. Action Park Area, Lewisville Action Park Action Park not only has mini golf, but also go-karting, batting cages, an arcade, jumping houses and a café. However, with two games of 18-hole mini golf, Dallas and the Dentons head here often to get into a round of putt. The courses, known as The Island and the Valley, offer enough obstacles to keep even the best entertainers entertained. Shankz Black Light Miniature Golf, Woodlands Shankz Black Light Miniature Golf This indoor, glowing mini golf course in the Woods makes for the perfect rainy day activity. Since all 18 holes are under black light, the weather at Shankz is a truly unique mini golf experience. Each hole has a different theme. You will find glowing sharks, dinosaurs and mermaids blocking every put. Black art decorating the holes are just as fun to watch as golf is fun to play. Peter Pan Mini Golf, Peter Pan Mini Golf, has been the iconic Austin Hotel since 1948. This mini golf course in downtown Austin has 2 18-hole courses. This course is definitely not the newest course on this list, but outdated charm is what drives Austin families to return to Peter Pan. Moreover, the course can entertain children, but BYOB's policy is what makes things fun for mom and dad. Monster Mini Golf, Round Rock Monster Mini Golf party likes that it's Halloween every time you visit Monster Mini Golf in Round Rock. With a themed course full of animated monsters, special effects, and glow-in-the-dark features, this indoor putt putt golf establishment is scary and fun. Monster Mini Golf also has a 2,800-square-foot laser tag area and a well-stocked arcade. There is also a Monster mini golf course in San Antonio. Ellen Amusement Center, Cedar Hill Ellen's Iconic American Attractions Center mark 18 holes found at The Ellen Amusement Center. From Dallas' Big Tex to the Statue of Liberty in New York, will be challenged Have fun from the animated mini golf course here. Entertain families since 1988, Ellen Amusement Center and has a two-story arcade, tattooing cages, three paintball fields and an outdoor laser tag. Cool Crest Miniature Golf Course, San Antonio Cool Crest Miniature Golf Course, Cool Crest Miniature Golf Course is not only one of the longest mini golf courses in Texas, but also worldwide. Opened in the 1930s, this San Antonio putt golf venue offers two 18-hole golf courses surrounded by lush vegetation, banana trees and raging streams. Guests can head to this family-run golf course on Wednesdays in summer for the family evening and enjoy discounted rates. Park N Pizza Austin in Austin Park is the best entertainment complex in the city. Outdoors there are 36 holes, a themed mini golf course. Austin Park isn't just home to a great shallow course. Other family-friendly attractions are available at this 23-acre accommodation. With a bowling alley, rock wall, laser tag zone, arcade and buffet pizza, you are sure to have fun while visiting this large complex in Pflugerville. Putt-Putt FunHouse, Webster Putt-Put FunHouse opened in 1979. Putt-Putt FunHouse has grown as a top mini golf course in the Houston area. Like other mini golf venues on this list, Putt-Putt FunHouse is a family-friendly entertainment complex. So besides the great mini golf course here, also enjoy bumper cars, a rock wall, a laser marker, a 3D movie theater and a full-fledged café. There are also mountania's 2 attractions. There are two mini golf courses with fun obstacles such as caves and waterfalls. Complete with a skating rink, go-karts, laser tag, batting cages and other fun attractions, it's no wonder Mountasia was a favorite entertainment complex among Houstons. Topgolf has something for everyone, including 54 holes of prize winning miniature golf! This put putt course is the perfect place for any birthday or just a fun day with family and friends. Children up to 6th | Children (7-17): $6.50 | Adults (18+): USD 9 - Mini golf is available during normal working hours. - The last game must be purchased one hour before closing. - Price includes vat tax cells (temporarily closed) Please note that the cash cell availability is depending on the time.
